PROFIT TAKING IN WALL STREET

TRUST COMPANIES VIEWED WITH SUSPICION.

New York, Oct. 27.—About the time when professional operators were in the midst of their selling to take profits on the considerable advance of yesterday and day Wall street was alarmed with ru-day Wall street was alarmed with rufrom some of the banks and trust companies in St. Louis, but expressions of confidence were quoted that no harm would result to the institutions affected. The closing of the stock market was in consequence fairly steady, although the earlier advances were generally wiped out and net losses were the rule at the close. It was obvious from the outset that the considerable demand for stocks was being freely fed for purposes of profit-taking. It is difficult to say, therefore, how far the St. Louis development may have been responsible for the reaction.
